

APPLICATION TO REOPEN AN ORDER

Use this form to apply to VCAT for a review of an order that affects you, on the grounds that you did not appear and were not represented at the hearing.

This is called an application under section 120 of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Act 1998.

FEES

You must pay a fee if your application is in the Civil, Administrative or Planning and Environment Divisions.

There is no application fee if your case is in the Residential Tenancies or Human Rights Divisions.

VCAT fees are charged according to three levels:

- Corporate fees for businesses and companies with a turnover of more than $200,000 in the previous financial year, corporate entities and government agencies
- Standard fees for individuals, not-for-profit organisations, and small businesses and companies with a turnover of less than $200,000 in the previous financial year. Companies must provide a statutory declaration to support this claim
- Concession fees for people who hold the Australian Government Health Care Card. You must provide a copy of your card with your application.

To find out how to pay an application fee and how much it costs, visit www.vcat.vic.gov.au/fees.

LODGING THIS FORM

Your application must arrive at VCAT within 14 days of the day you became aware of the order.

What we consider

We may hear and determine your application if we are satisfied that:

- you had a reasonable excuse for not attending and were not represented at the hearing.
- you have a reasonable case to argue about the subject matter of the order, and
- any prejudice is not caused to another party if the application is heard and determined.

What happens after applying

We tell all parties where and when to attend VCAT to consider your application.

You need to bring any documents that support your reasons for not attending or being represented at the hearing.

If your application is successful, the original order is suspended pending the further hearing of the matter. Another hearing will be scheduled on the same day we hear your application or a later day. If your application is unsuccessful, the original order remains in place.

You can only apply for a review of an order once, unless VCAT gives you permission to apply again.
