PRIVACY POLICY

All information you give VCAT for your case is available to anyone who inspects the case file or attends the hearing, including media. They might get information like your name, contact details and personal information. By law, with limited exceptions, VCAT must share information that you provide for your case with other parties. This includes your documents and evidence. But it is illegal to publish or broadcast information that could identify a party in a guardianship, powers of attorney or medical treatment case, unless VCAT makes an exception.

You can ask VCAT at the start of the case to keep your information confidential. VCAT may not agree to this request. For more information, go to www.vcat.vic.gov.au/privacy

DO I NEED TO GIVE PEOPLE A COPY OF MY APPLICATION?

You must tell the people who you have mentioned in this form about your application.

Send a copy of your application and any documents in support of it to parties.

Parties to your application include:

- the person you are applying about
- any existing administrator or guardian
- any existing supportive administrator or supportive guardian.

You must also send a copy of your application to everyone else you have mentioned in this form, but you do not need to send the documents you submitted in support of your application.

Send a copy of your application to the following people:

- the spouse or domestic partner of the person you are applying about (if any)
- the primary carer of the person you are applying about (if any)
- any person you have mentioned has a direct interest in your application.

HOW TO GIVE PEOPLE A COPY OF YOUR APPLICATION

You can give people a copy of your application and supporting documents by email, post or in person.

You can only send by email if you have already exchanged information with them this way.

RIGHTS OF PARTIES

A party can attend the hearing, give evidence, ask questions and make submissions. They may also be able to make further applications after the hearing.

RIGHTS OF EVERYONE ELSE MENTIONED IN YOUR APPLICATION

Everyone else you have mentioned in your application can attend the hearing.

They can ask to see the entire VCAT file. VCAT grants access unless there is a good reason to refuse, such as the need to keep sensitive personal information private or the potential to cause another person harm.

VCAT may ask the other parties for their views before deciding whether to grant access. It is an offence under the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998 to publish or broadcast any material that identifies a party to a proceeding under the Guardianship and Administration Act 1986.

People you have mentioned in your application can also apply to be joined as a party, by writing to VCAT or by asking at the hearing. VCAT may ask the other parties for their views on this. VCAT will then make an order granting or refusing the application to be joined as a party. If they become a party, they gain the same rights as described in the previous section.

COMMUNICATING WITH VCAT AND OTHER PARTIES

If you plan to use evidence at VCAT you need to send copies of these documents to the other parties. How to do this and when is explained in the notice or order VCAT sends you.

By law, when you send documents to VCAT related to your case you must also send them to the other parties so the process is open and fair (called 'serving documents').
