

Direct Debit Request (DDR)

Direct Debit Service information

This document provides general information in respect of the Direct Debit Request (DDR) arrangements which apply to your use of the VCAT Residential Tenancies Hub (formerly VCAT Online). This document does not in any way alter any of the provisions of the VCAT Residential Tenancies Hub Terms and Conditions signed by you.

Confidential information

All personal customer information held by VCAT will be kept confidential except that information provided to our financial institution to initiate the drawing to your nominated account.

Drawing arrangements

Before completing the DDR, please check that direct debits can be made from the account you will nominate in the DDR. Your financial institution can provide this information.

Usually the relevant fee will be debited from the account nominated in your DDR on the next business day following your lodgment of an application (under the Residential Tenancies Act 1997 and/or the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998) via VCAT Residential Tenancies Hub.

Please ensure that sufficient cleared funds are always available in the account nominated in your DDR.

If any drawing from the account nominated in your DDR is returned or dishonoured by your financial institution, VCAT will send advice requesting payment / re-draw within three (3) days. Please note that any transaction fees that VCAT incurs for dishonoured or returned drawings will be charged to you.

Changes to your DDR

If you would like to change any information in your DDR and or close your account notify VCAT Residential Tenancies Hub Support in writing on company letterhead quoting your user id.

Please contact the VCAT Residential Tenancies Hub Support promptly if you close the account nominated in your DDR.

Difficulties

Direct all enquiries to the VCAT Residential Tenancies Hub Support telephone 1300 01 8228 (1300 01 VCAT).

If you wish to query the drawing of any funds from the account nominated in your DDR, please contact the VCAT Residential Tenancies Hub Support first before contacting your financial institution.

In some cases VCAT may not be able to resolve your difficulties and you may need to contact your financial institution.
