

Information needed for VCAT's decision

Tell us what's important to the person the decision is being made about.

This information will help us make the best decision for their situation.

You can answer some or all of the questions.

Who this is about:

VCAT Reference Number G

What is your relationship to this person:

What is important about their accommodation?

You may want to think about:

- Where do they like to live?
- Are they happy where they are living?
- What do they like/dislike about their accommodation?
- Where would they like to live if they move one day?

What is important to them for daily living?

You may want to think about:

- What help and support they currently use?
- What help and support they would like on a day-to-day basis?
- What help and support do you think they may need in the future?

What is important about their relationships?

You may want to think about:

- Who are the most important people in their life?
- Do they have close friends or family who support them?
- Is there anyone they'd rather not see?
- Is there someone they wish they could see more?
- Would they like to meet new people and form new relationships?

What is important to them about your medical treatment?

You may want to think about:

- Is there someone who helps them get medical care?
- Where do they like to go for medical care?
- Is there anything they don't like about their medical care?

What is important about their income and expenses?

You may want to think about:

- What they want to spend their money on?
- How much they like to save?
- Do they have any financial goals or plans?
- Would you like any support from someone regarding your finances, such as family & friends or someone independent?

What else is important to them?

Some things you may want to think about:

- Do they have a pet that they care for?
- What activities or hobbies do they enjoy?
- Do they have any cultural traditions or practices?
- Do they take part in any religious or spiritual activities?
- Is there any further information you'd like to share?
- Is there any information they don't want to be shared?

Acknowledgment

By completing this worksheet, I understand and acknowledge that:

- to the best of my knowledge, all information provided in this worksheet is true and correct

- it is an offence under section 136 of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998 to knowingly give false or misleading information to VCAT

Your full name:

Date: